

Carol Connelly

I have been a governor for 20 plus years serving a variety of schools and settings, I have served as an additional governor and have held various positions on governing bodies and IEBs, Chair of Governors, Safeguarding governor etc. and I am presently Chair of Governors at The Cavendish School.

For nearly four years I have worked as an independent education consultant with a focus on supporting schools in challenging circumstances. I have been commissioned to work with Herts for Learning, Hertfordshire County Council and directly by schools, governing bodies and other education authorities. I am also a Diocesan education consultant for the Diocese of St Albans.

I am a member of a local MAT and have a keen interest in current educational developments.

I have qualifications as a mediator, facilitator and negotiator. I am an accredited Safer recruitment trainer, PREVENT trainer. I have a good understanding of statutory frameworks and national and local education initiatives.
